Are you at risk of losing your housing?

Keys to Early Intervention
in Homelessness Service
(KEIHS)

Are any of these things affecting your tenancy?

- Receipt of a Remedy Breach / Notice to Leave
- Changes to your family / household causing significant concern
- Relationship problems
- Financial difficulties
- Communication with your landlord or agent
- Loss or changes to employment
- Issues with substance use
- Issues with gambling
- Physical or mental health issues
- Disability
- Problems with, or changes to Centrelink payments
- Struggling to pay rent

Do you need information or support to maintain your housing?

Our qualified support workers provide a confidential service which can:

- Help to keep you in your housing if possible
- Give you information about housing and related matters
- Assist you to make contact with other services
- Talk to services about your circumstances on your behalf with your consent
- Inform you about your rights and responsibilities as a tenant

What can we help you with?

- Information, advocacy and referral
- Intensive case management support for people residing in Caloundra, Maroochydore, Nambour, Gympie, Caboolture, Morayfield and Deception Bay.

Including:

- Tenancy education and support to stabilise housing
- Assistance to plan and achieve goals
- Budgeting / referral to financial counselling
- Living skills / personal development
- Support to access specialist services, eg. health, legal, counselling, parenting and relationship services.
- Access to training, employment and educational services
